E-Summary

“TRAINING OF NON-GAZETTED POLICE OFFICERS IN HARYANA: A CASE STUDY OF HARYANA POLICE ACADEMY, MADHUBAN”

This study on the topic “TRAINING OF NON-GAZETTED POLICE OFFICERS IN HARYANA: A CASE STUDY OF HARYANA POLICE ACADEMY, MADHUBAN” has been spread over seven chapters and each chapter has investigated specific aspect of the problem. The Chapter I has dealt at length with Significance and Methodology used in this research work. The sample of 501 trainees, 102 trainers and 228 trained police personnel was drawn to elicit the responses to find out the status of infrastructure, facilities, working conditions of the trainer and how useful is the training for the police personnel in the state for the Non-Gazetted Police Officers. The Chapter II deals with Organizational Structure and functions of Haryana Police. Chapter III highlights Administrative Setup, Training Courses and Contents of Haryana Police Academy, Madhuban. Chapter IV examines the satisfaction level of the trainees with infrastructure and training facilities provided at the Academy. Chapter V has assessed the satisfactions level of the trainers with infrastructure, facilities and working conditions. Chapter VI examines the viewpoint of trained police personnel about usefulness of the training. Chapter VII includes Findings, Suggestions and Conclusion.

The findings have reflected that the trainees, trainers and the trained police personnel were by and large were satisfied with facilities. In the end some suggestions have been given, on the basis of study and observation, for the further improvement of the training facilities.